Character is something each one of us must build for himself, out of the laws of God and nature, the examples of others and — most of all — out of the trials and errors of daily life. Character is the total of thousands of small daily strivings to live up to the best that is in us. Character is the final decision to reject whatever is demeaning to oneself or to others and with confidence and honesty to choose the right.

Where hills and vales, the woodland and the plain,
Where earth and water seem to strive again
Not chaos-like together crush'd and bruis'd,
But, as the world, harmoniously confus'd
where order in variety we see,
And where, though all things differ,
all agree

Administration

To The Graduating Class of 1979

The Central Office extends its Congratulations and Best Wishes to the Class of '79. We hope your future years will be happy and productive. May you derive every joy and achieve every success you wish. The Mansfield Public Schools are proud of their graduating class of 1979. Good Luck, Graduates!

Sincerely,

Robert V. Barbarisi

TO THE CLASS OF 1979

When you receive this yearbook you will find yourselves dis-banded — each going his own way. Each will find his place in the scheme of things of our great land. The adult world faces a future with mixed emotions filled with uncertainties.

It is the character of youth to be optimistic. It is my sincere wish that you keep this optimism and, through wise choices of vocation, fulfill our wishes for your success. Success comes surely to those who have courage and to those who turn their talents to activities in which there is an awareness that the thing being done is essential.

Optimism will enable you to set goals; courage will ensure their attainment.

Whatever seems important today might not even be desirable tomorrow. Please set your priorities and if what you desire is morally and ethically sound, fight for it with every bit of energy and strength you possess. Then, and only then, can you live with yourself and attain some measure of self-respect and happiness.

Christmas '78

Christmas spirits were first aroused this year by CSF Window Painters who transformed Mansfield's Main Street into a "Winter Wonderland".

Then, on December 18th, many hours of rehearsal and hard work were appreciated when the MHS Concert Choir and Band filled the air with "Sounds of Christmas" which included a musical performance by both groups and a play presented by the choir, who throughout the season, also made appearances at Nursing Homes, the Mansfield

Library, and Cedar Court, etc.

Human candy canes, skinny Santa Clauses, and merry elves were the sights on "Christmas Dress Down Day", sponsored by the Student Council. Proceeds were sent to the Globe Santa and the event was enjoyed by all.

Finally, to finish off the week, the Band and Choir brought their good tidings and cheer from school to school and captured the hearts of all the youngsters in town.

Jennifer Garland plus Mickey and Minnie Mouse (alias Jean Charbonneau and Maggie Jardin) pose for pictures and autographs Snow White, Lisa Packert Barry Rideout as Jolly Old Saint Nick These Christmas presents were later found unwrapping themselves in public
Carole Peloquin, Kevin Jackson, and Sue Reynolds during the "Sounds of Christmas"
Elaine Kaleta and Debby Downey created this scene at Catalano's Liquors, which received the Judge's Prize

Carousel

After months of tedious and often times long rehearsals, when the final nail was in place and the last coat of paint was applied, and the videotape had been viewed several times by everyone involved, Carousel was ready. Cast and crew looked toward March 29 at 8:22 PM with anticipation and, at last, "opening night" arrived . . .

OPPOSITE PAGE: Dancers Jennifer Hulburt and Beth Bruno sweep their way through "June Is Busting Out All Over".

Even the human carousel was a success in the ballet, which was conceived by Carole Peloquin and Merrie Beaton.

Silently hoping that the fog machine ain't going to explode, as it had many times at rehearsals, the Starkeeper, Neal Boldrighini dusts off a star in heaven. Nettie Fowler, played by Pam Chapman, offers consolation and her home to Julie, who is bereaved by the loss of her husband.

Spring Track

Mansfield has long had a Spring Track dynasty, but in 1979 the Hornets were to put forward their best teams ever in boys' and girls' track. Early season victories in the J. J. Sixth row: Coach Jim Stirewalt, Peter Dion, Bob Petrella, Bob Barry, Jack Hulburd, John Noffle, Dennis Levine, Mike Davison, Dave Trenough.

BELOW: Though a sprinter at heart, senior Dan Lamagno (left), proved very talented in the long jump and in the triple also. Here he jumps against Seekonk early in the season. One of New England's top high jumpers, undefeated senior Paul Souza (center) practices for another season of leaping. His goal this year was to clear 7 feet. Though Dennis Buckley was the team's main pole vaulter, Don Ayalla usually managed to out-leap his opponents as he did here against Seekonk

RIGHT: Running the 880 early in the season, Mike Bellavance (left) and Allan Johnson cross the line for their last lap. As though he's on a hunting mission to kill some wild animal, Barry Meehan made a long javelin toss against Seekonk

Showing the pain of competition, Gus Bregnard, one of Mansfield's greatest shot putters, shows the form that led him to fifth in the state in Indoor Track. Here, however, he's in the March cold against Seekonk. A member of Mansfield's 4x110 relay team, Dennis Buckley is off and running

Throwing the javelin isn't exactly fun all the time, as juniors Ellen O'Malley (left) and Karen Zecher show here

Varsity Softball

Statistics Are Often Misleading as was the case this year for the Varsity Softball Team. The record of 1-15 does not accurately reflect the team's overall performance for the season. The team displayed remarkable enthusiasm and mutual support for one another as shown below as Paula Chambers scores on a wild pitch. And yet the season was one filled with discouragement and disappointment (bottom: Judy Wellington, Janice Barrows, Debbie Downey, Paula Chambers and Sandy Paulson) . . .

... as the team saw early leads cut to nothing and games lost in the last inning or extra innings. Starting third baseman Kathy Tarball (above) was lost for most of the season due to a collision on this tag play at third. Good performances were turned in by a number of players like Laura Holske, Anne Engley and Sue "Fred" Andres (top), and by Elaine Kaleta (opposite page) whose seventh inning grand slam homer at Sharon put her team ahead by one but failed to bring home a victory.

Despite the record, the varsity club prompted compliments from league coaches and umpires alike for the dramatic improvement on the field over previous years. A key factor in the development was first year coach Steve Russel (left) who encouraged his team even when the scores went against him. Team attitude and sportsmanship should well be admired around the Hockomock League.

For the second season in a row, the Hornet nine suffered a losing season. Under first year coach Gerry Kelley, the team tallied just four wins, yet those were big ones. After a 7-6 marathon win against Medway, the team's "10th player", Bill Nordberg fired a 6-hit, 6-2 victory at Stoughton. The last win of the year against toumey bound K.P. saw 14 hits, 3 each by Fournier, DePillo and Boldrighini. MVP Pat DePillo led the team in hitting, while Bill Harlor and Bill Nordberg were leaders in ERA. MVP: Pat DePillo
Tenth Player: Bill Nordberg

Girls' Cross Country

Mansfield introduced a Girls' Cross Country Team this year and the Hornets proved that the investment was worth it. The Hornet girls finished with a 5-2 record against some of the best runners around, and easily won the South Shore Meet. Hornet runners Kim and Sue Miller kept the team in a lot of meets, as did a dozen or so other runners. MVP: Kim Miller
Most Dedicated: Carolyn Morton, Kathy King

Boys' Cross Country

The Boys' Cross Country Team also had a solid season behind the running of John LeBlanc, Paul King, and sophomore Bill Quinn. The men of Maple Park didn't do as well as their female counterparts record wise, but still competed well. LeBlanc won many of his meets and King placed often in the top five, but the strong showing wasn't enough. MVP: John LeBlanc
Most Dedicated: Paul King

Girls' Basketball

Though the Girls' Basketball Team didn't have a very successful campaign, the team did have one great moment — a victory over King Philip in overtime at home. The triumph was Al Salachi's first as Hornet head coach.

Elaine Kaleta and Ellen O'Malley produced baskets in the clutch, and Mansfield rallied to tie the game and force the overtime. The Hornets eventually eeked out a three point, 39-36 win.

Kaleta and O'Malley were the team's leading scorers with Terri Mastroioli, Sue Andres, Karen Zecher and others rounding out the heart of the team.

Most of the starters of this year will be back next season, including Kaleta and O'Malley, so it's worth until next year for the girls.

Though the record doesn't indicate it, this year's Softball Team showed a dramatic improvement over previous years, and caused some concern with league contenders like King Philip. Unable to maintain leads and losses by slim margins in late innings could have discouraged most teams, but the Hornets came back every game and were noted in coaching and umpiring circles as the most improved team in the league. MVP: Sue "Fred" Andres
Most Improved: Julie Wagner

Winter Track

Mansfield kept its streak of league championships alive with another Hockomock title, but there is a blemish on this one. Mansfield has to share the title with Franklin and North Attleboro, as 3 squads finished with 5-2 records down the stretch.

Leading scorers Dan Lamagno and Dennis Buckley fueled early season wins, such as 60-26 dousing of Sharon and a vital win over Franklin. The Hornets finally fell to defeat against North Attleboro, as the Red Rocketeers pulled out a relay win to take a 44%-41% edge. Mansfield later dropped to Stoughton, causing a 3-way tie.

Many records were set though. Dan Lamagno, team MVP, matched school records in the 45 high hurdles with a 5.9 mark, and shattered school records in the 300 (32.6) and 50 (5.4). Lamagno was State Class Champion in the 300. Dennis Buckley was the team's utility man, running the 50, doing the high jump and the relay. Gus Bregnard shattered the school mark in the shot put with a whopping toss of 51-9. Scott took 5th in the state.

Paul Souza, 3 days after scoring his 1000th point in basketball, donned a track uniform and set a new Class D high jump record at the State Meet in Reading. Mansfield was in the top 5 in that meet.

MVP: Dan Lamagno

Boys' Basketball

The highlight of the 1978-1979 Boys' Basketball season was Paul Souza's scoring his 1000th career point, which came on a free throw on a technical foul prior to his last game against Oliver Ames. Paul scored 300 points or better in all three of his varsity years, and is second on the all time Mansfield scoring list with 1036 points.

The Hornets picked up 6 wins, with most coming on Souza's scoring and the excellent rebounding of Geoff Reed, who averaged 10 rebounds per game. Mike Wagner and his senior classmate Rich Fournier added stability in the backcourt, and Lenny Lively, Kevin Jackson and John DeMaris rounded out the bulk of the squad.

Jackson, Reed and Wagner were the team's other leading scorers. Wagner fired home a career high 22 points against Canton, fueling a last quarter rally which fell just short of producing a win. Jackson was hot against Dighton-Rehoboth, and Reed was consistent under the hoop all season.

The Hornet football season was divided into two distinct halves, as Mansfield racked up six consecutive wins, but lost four in a row against stronger opponents. After two early blowouts, Pat DePillo won the next two games with his toe, as he kicked a field goal against Stoughton and a clutch extra point versus Oliver Ames. Jay D'Ambra, the team's leading player with 441 yards, had the game winning drive in that game.

The Hornets fought to stay undefeated through the stretch but key injuries and costly penalties led to tough late season losses.

Russell Muise, a lineman, was the team MVP, while D'Ambra was most improved.

A mixture of youth and experience made the 1979 season relatively successful for the Hornet Girls. Freshman Jane Simoni and sophomore Sharon Bassett (Most Improved) were the difference in many matches, as was the team MVP Melissa Seifert who had an excellent year. The 1979 Mansfield Boys' Track Team had a high standard to live up to, but with what Coach Brian Francis called "the greatest team ever," the Hornets couldn't miss.

The team was a team of champions. State and New England class high jumper Paul Souza, undefeated in his varsity career, and sprinter Dan Lamagno, a star since his fantastic sophomore year, anchored this year's squad. But Mansfield wasn't only two players. Scott Bregnard, one of the state's top shot putters, was a major driving force. Pole vaulter Dennis Buckley performed excellently, leaping over 13 feet in the State's and N.E.'s. Many other competitors combined to make this a great year for Mansfield Track.

Anne Marie Gardner a big bandaid and a marker for her dent in McDonald's parking lot, and to Lisa Rebello a new imaginary phone buddy.

Jerome Sullivan leaves the Junior Class a smile and leaves Mr. Barnes a main course of prime rib of numbers, a few odd roots, and for dessert a fraction of a Pi.

Cathy Cottuli and Sue Alberto leave Raul Pereira, Dom Cimino, thank goodness.

Sue Alberto leaves K.H., J.R., R.R. and evil D.B. alone.

Someone leaves Jeff Rys one pack of non ribs.

Paul Souza leaves Ann Gardner, Pat Adams and Jayne Carr possession of the presidency of the F.H. Club.

Mary Thurber leaves Mr. M a secret and Mr. Hunter the thin line between genius and insanity in the hope he'll fall to the other side.

Cindy Maxwell leaves her brother a lot of love.

Brenda Cuneo, Susan Andres and Martha Connor

leave Miss Carbonetti "haciendo un circulo."

Susan Fiske leaves Diana King all alone in the back row trying to put her baritone back together again.

Michael Murray, Donald Flint, Wayne Hallgren and

Curtis Linn leave Ricky Murray a match to burn the gumlist.

Cheryl Moore, Jill Hinchey, Cindy Maxwell and Diana Tighe leave Lisa Small a book entitled 1001 excuses to get out of track practice, Kathy Nash a book entitled 1001 things to whine about in practice, and to Pat, Ploffee and Jayne, a season's supply of ammunition for all those locker room brawls, the care and feeding of Dad, and lastly, a lot of love and good luck for next year, we'll miss you.

Barbara Jette leaves Kim Ivory with Jeff in Eric's car and her G.I.-M.J. at the Harper Valley PTA, Mr. Perry a pair of shoes that don't squeak, "Killer" Tarball her own car to sit on when she skips study, Karen a new dog, Mike Schoenemann a sports car to ride around in for the rest of his life, Mrs. Glasier a kitten, and Joan Waseleski painting baseboards.

Ros Olden leaves Karen in the dog house, Markie on the floor, Lisa and David alone, John with two dozen eggs, Deb with she knows who, alone in the car, Joan and Donny — oh boy. Jill Hinchey leaves the sabotage crew a big B.T. and Jayne Carr a lifetime supply of Good Humor Ice Cream.

Glenn Fournier and Tim Creeden finally leave the corner of MHS left to them in 1977 by Jeanne Grady and Beth Horton.

Denise Harkness leaves her baby brother Paul an umbrella to use at the bus stop on the mornings it rains and she leaves the office and the key punch machine happily, never to return.

Lynn McCra and Donna Sparrow leave Wick and Linda fighting as usual.

Lynn McCra leaves Mark all alone on his motorcycle, C.J. and D.J. saying "No I can't skip with the seniors", and Dale Haaversen with Jeff following right behind him.

Donna Noonan leaves Tom Narciso one McDonald's coffee spoon, Cindy Smith saying "Well I never", Gardner her own dead cat and a book entitled 101 ways to butcher your cat in anatomy, and Christine McCarthy wandering around in an empty hall imagining that everyone is staring at her.

Glenn Fournier and Nancy Bachman leave approximately 636 miles of sidewalk they've walked together since freshman year.

Lynn Doiron leaves to the drill team Janine Golden, she leaves Scott Poleo painting "John Travolta in a Santa Suit", Tut Juda a sphinx and an unending supply of loveletters for her lord, and to Miss Trombley, a humane humanities class next year. Richard Fournier leaves MHS in hope that one day the student body will have half the courage and determination of Billy Small. Mary Hyde leaves nothing to Debbie Shepard one carton of cigarettes, Maureen Rose one last cup of coffee, she leaves saying "who wants to skip with me?" Diane Burns leaves Anne Marie Hayner all the fond memories of 12:29, the drive-in bathroom, all the good times with Steve and Chick and especially the times with snuffy on the Rollercoaster road, and my arm getting caught in the window. Good luck in the future with school and with Chick. She also leaves Dorine Campanario standing at the bus stop, dreaming of Smitty and Bubba, Tina Tarentino getting stuck listening to Dorine and lots of luck in the future, and to Donna Powers lots of luck in school and hopes that her dream of me and Doug will come true.

Richard Frank and Curt Linn leave Dennis Buckley and Linda Coggershall the words "Hello" and a referee on Thursday. They also leave the future chemistry students of MHS a piece of sodium and a book on 101 ways to blow up a lab.

Richard Frank leaves Lisa DiGiovanni no one to bother her anymore, to Elaina, Kerri, Sharon and Lisa B. 1 million fish, and to Patsy DePillo the MHS catcher's position. Renee Hatch leaves Maria Duarte a year free of certain persons aggravation, Ann Mansfield High School except a handful of good friends.

Mike Wagner, Ralph Petrillo, and Rich Fournier leave fellow male students 101 ways to blow a golden opportunity.

The senior class officers leave Mr. Kelley in his office saying "They can write whatever they want about me in the will, it doesn't bother me". Diane Main and Cheryl Moore leave Miss Carbonetti Jean Todesco, Mary Kinsley and Janelle Precourt one broken window and 500 pesetas to pay for it.

Diane leaves Kathy Tarball one box of devil dogs and a pair of satin silk shorts like the ones in the back seat.

Class Prophecy

Dear Miss Carbonetti:

Hola! Here we are at our 20th class reunion — sorry you couldn't be here. We're writing this slowly because we know you don't read fast, but anyway this letter is to bring you up to date on the Class of '79.

Do you remember Dawn Razee and Sue Alberto? Well they're now the proud owners of a Holiday Inn in Montreal, always checking on their customers to make sure they're all tucked in. Moving right along, Mark Anderson, Mike Bouchard, Ray Bouchard, Kenny Stowe and John Manning are currently morticians, just dying for their big break! What a bunch of stiffes, ha ha.

Oh yeah, you must have heard about Sue Andres and her million dollar contract. She's replacing Red Sox centerfielder Fred Lynn. Did you catch that one? Anyway, remember Tracy Anese, Laurie Plante, Jean Marshall, Paula Butler, Cindy Beckwith, Karen Reynolds and Dolores Ethier? Well, they're all still arguing over who knows what. Donald and Marc Ayalla have reached new heights in their comedy careers of writing tall tales. Nancy Bachman and Marcus Silvi are currently featured at Carnegie Hall playing some of their latest hits which include "Go tell it on the Mountain", and "It's a Small World After All". Donald Baldini and John LoDico are currently writing protest posters for the PLO. Matthew O'Leary and Chris Barrows are now the prestigious owners of the Michelob Brewery. They've changed the motto, however, to everyday is made for Michelob. Bob Bolton, Curtis Lynn, Mike Murray, Don Flint, Tom Brintnall and Jeff Skinner, being the concerned citizens they are, have invented a new car called the Campbell's Pork and Beans Car, because America needs the gas.

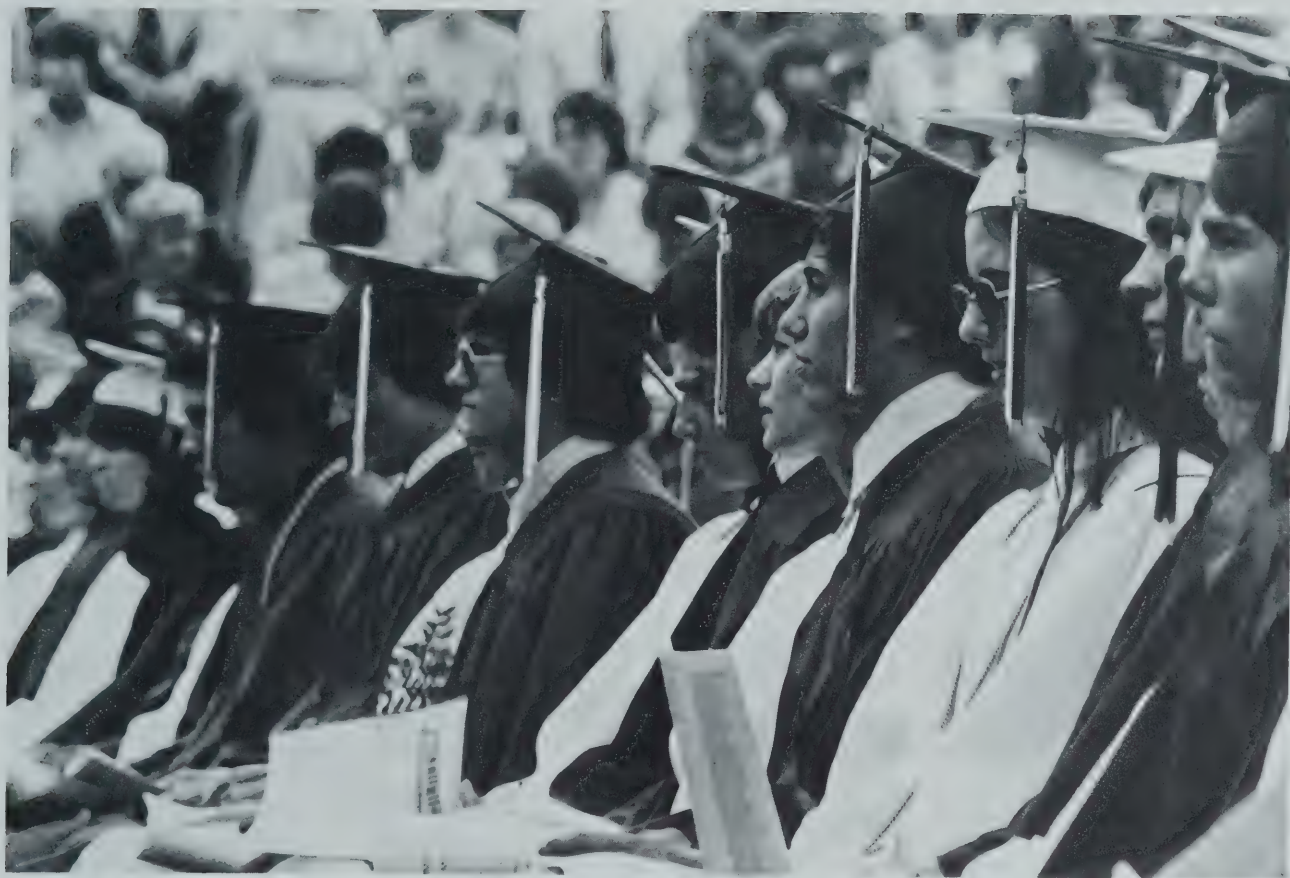

Remember the #1 best seller "Russ and Gus go to New Hampshire"? Well, because their first novel was such a success, they've written their second one called "Russ and Gus thumb to Europe". Richard Carey, Tony DeFaria, Barry Meehan, Danny Brown, Carl Nelson and Carmen Russo have joined the under water rock band formed by John Certuse, Jim LeShane, and Gary Madan. They call themselves the Barnacle Bunch and they have a new hit single, "I'm stuck on you". Debbie Charbonneau, Beth Udall, Mary Hyde, Dee Oberlander and Ann Piccolomini are still together working at the glue factory, and their motto is breaking up is hard to do.

Jack Clagg, Bill Gasson, and Roland Schaupp have formed a new religious cult in which they worship heavenly bodies such as Trans Ams, Corvettes, and VW's. Tim Coffey and Tom Musto have been jailed for pornography because of their recent film in which they showed several chromosomes pulling their genes down. Paul Cogen, Wayne Hallgren and Richard Frank started a red pepper farm. Isn't that a hot one? Remember Jeff Colson and Tom Harding? Well, they've disappeared. Richard Fournier, Michael Wagner, Ralph Petrillo and Neal Boldrighini are forever searching for bigger and better dunes down at Chapan Beach and just maybe they'll conquer the biggest dunes in the world. Martha Connor leads a very boring life, but I suppose we should mention it. She's now living in Beverly Hills making around 90 grand a year. Boring, huh? Cathy Cotuli, Diane Burns and Marguerite Kashtan couldn't make it to the reunion because Mother Superior wouldn't give them the night off. Tim Creeden has opened his own shop, Lickety Split, with 28 different flavors. Cindy Cuneo and Darlene Plant are now working 24 hour shifts as telephone operators. Jay D'Ambra, Paul King, and Dirk Lamagno have opened their own miniature golf course in sunny downtown Norton where they're calling all the shots. We weren't able to locate Brenda Cuneo, Melissa Seifert, Jean Lindquist, Helen Davison and Loraine Saunders, they were busy . . . Bill Hanson, Greg Dion, and Ron Ploof and Stev Smith are now male models for Sears & Roebuck, stepping high in fashion.

Diane Johnston, Lynne Doiron and Rosalind Olden are now starring in a new movie produced by the O'Brien brothers, Darrin and Richard, which involves an earthquake and a fire. It's entitled "Shake and Bake".

And as usual, no one knows what Mark Dyke is doing. Anne Engley, Colleen O'Malley, Sue Flynn, and Terri Lestan are now roller derby queens and are known as Annihilating Annie, Crushin Colleen, Super Sue and Terrorizing Terri. Jeff Fasulo was unable to attend because last night he fell into a french fry vat. Jean McCrady, Barbar Gove, Carol Knight, Denise Harkness, and Maureen Rose are the workers at Sue Fiske's chain of Kissin Cousin's Pizza. Drs. Geoff Reed, Scott Buchanan, Scott Eames and Bill Nordberg have just opened a gynecology practice. Patty McGrath, Mary Kinsley, and Julie Muise are now live-in maids at Bryant College. Jill Hinchey and Cheryl Moore opened up a factory that manufactured squirt guns, vaseline, shaving cream, baby powder and atomic bomb. They sell their merchandise to girls' track teams. Barbara Jette, Sue Mayo and Wendy Reagan were last seen at cheerleading practice for the Dallas Cowgirls. Kim Kay, Donna Sparrow and Debbie Shepard are jockeys at Suffolk Downs. The job of basement monitor at MHS has just been assigned to Erin Kelly, Laurie Lischer and Jackie Lucia. Mike LaJoie was recently arrested for painting a green on the torch of the Statue of Liberty. John LeBlanc and Bif Mason were just named to the Lou Farigno Hall of Fame. Paul Mackey, Brian Willis and Dave Malay have opened a new cosmetology shop. Jean Todesco and Cindy Maxwell are still stalling at red lights in Cindy's VW. Wally Meehan, Barry Meehan and Darin Haaversen were recently promoted to the rank of 5-star general and are assigned to Chamber's Pit in West Mansfield for strategic maneuvers. While working at their sardine factory, Lynn McCra, Linda Mercier and Sue Mederis, Kathy Roberts, and Mary Thurber accidentally canned Wick McPherson. Tim McGrath, with John Wellington are on an excursion for Wild Kingdom in the Rocky Mountains. They are walking in circles photographing big foot prints. Ron Sherman, Bill Warren, and Doug Muise are translating English novels to Euchislavian. Donna Noonan, Donna Waters and Cindy Smith have been elected high ranking officials in the teamsters union. David Orton and Tom Sullivan are forever searching for a new cubicle. Nancy Roach and Carol Peloquin have been writing their first existential novel, "The Absurdities of Green Grass", under the guidance of Siddartha. Jean Pollister is working for the Peace Corps in Africa.

Zinta Reks is still searching for her Russian Vodka while singing her Latvian National Anthem, Doreen Shiek and Sandra White discovered the formula for eternal happiness. Henry Simoni was awarded the Nobel Prize for discovering that bones are filled with marrow. Robin Goddard is the proud owner of the Baltimore Orioles paying the players with bird feed. Marcia Haskell and Diane Devlin are living in Paris as prosperous artists, eating bread and water. Jeanine Swanson, Marlene Trahan and Janice Wheeler are covergirls for P'sychology Today. Janice Wilkinson, Lorie Zarek and Carolyn Morton have become tri-directors for the Mansfield Hornet Band and are now on their 32nd tour of Disney World. Joyce Goddard and Julie Trenouth brush with Crest and are now into commercials. Dave Gallagher and Ralph Haynes were deported to Cuba for selling the wrong size athletic supporters. Paul Souza has married a kangaroo and is always on the hop. Jim Weiss and Mike Garland, Kris Kane and John Kussnaul say Hi. Jill Harding is still looking for the bumper from her Caddy. Renee Hatch, Janelle Precourt and Nancy Melchiorri were last seen goose stepping across a puddle. Diana Tighe is now instructing the Japanese field hockey team in Samari tactics. Diane Main, Martha Wood, Glenn Fournier and Billy Frongillo could not attend the reunion for they were busy signing papers for their legally reserved parking spaces for their Mercedes, Jaguar, Rolls Royce and Porsche in the circle out front of MHS. Well, Miss Carbonetti, Hope you enjoyed hearing about everyone.

*Time and Life are our only true possessions . . .
Treasure the moments*

The Time Has Come

by Kevin Hayes

Reach out and touch the hands of a friend
Remember how it used to be Throughout the years those friends have all remained but now they whisper goodbye and bid their farewell

Our innocence grows cold as the flame of youth burns low
The time has come to meet ourselves and understand

Together for so long now to break away at last everyone has a different game to play as childhood fades into nothing a new star burns so bright
the light predicts our victory

With the wind at our backs, an odyssey begins
The seed that we sow will live on like our quest
We always must press onward throwing caution to the wind
For the life we forge shall always but always be our own.

Just a Memory

Music by: Richard Fournier Lyrics by: Richard Fournier and Ralph Petrillo

The road is long my friend
And we've only just begun
Like a book unopened and unread
Like a song unsung

And we'll fulfill the dreams
the ones we dreamt so long ago
We've come together this far but we've got so much more to go so much more to go

Memories and moments we've shared will forever rest in our minds
but the future lies ahead
we must go ahead and find

A rainbow that is waiting for us
A golden piece of mind and only fate will tell us
what we will find
what we will find

Montreal, the Junior Prom
They will forever be gone friends we've made, the times we've shared will always live on

Thanks Miss Carbonetti

We the Class of 1979

would like to extend our appreciation for all your assistance and devotion to our class. We hope you realize that without you, all our successful fund raisers and social functions would have been impossible. We will always treasure the special moments we have shared together throughout our high school years.

Love and happiness always,

P.S. We'll miss you.
